Feedback Analysis Report

Academic Year: 2021-22

LL.M. (Hons.)

5th May 2022

The department has gathered feedback on the curriculum from stakeholders (faculty and students, alumni, parents and employers) in order to make regular modifications to address industry, social, and environmental standards that law programmes and the legal profession serve. The details of the feedback received are as follows.

The department proposed the following recommendations on the basis of feedback and suggestions received (Annexure-1):

S. No.	Recommendations
1.	Content up gradation should be done in certain parts of the syllabus.
2.	New Specialization group should be added in the curricula.
3.	Leading Case laws should be incorporated in the curricula.
4.	Some Value Added Course should be incorporated in LL.M.
5.	Lecture delivery in class should be bilingual.
6.	PPT presentations and other ICT tools must be used in the classroom teaching.

Submitted to the Dean for necessary action.

Action Taken Report

Academic Year: 202-21

LL.M. (Hons.)

Date: 5 June 2021

The points were discussed on the basis of the feedback received and the following actions were taken to resolve the recommendation of the stakeholders:

S.No.	Recommendations	Action Taken
1.	All courses should include more applied contents.	All courses revised wherever needed.
2.	New Specialization group should be added in the curricula.	Since BCI has taken control over PG programme in law hence waiting for the guidelines. Till the time one elective group (Honors in Constitutional Law) has been recommended to be applicable from the academic session of 2022-23.
3.	Books and case laws need revision.	Latest editions of books and latest landmark case laws have been added.
4.	Some Value Added Course should be incorporated in LL.M.	One Value Added Course has been made mandatory for LL.M.
5.	Attention on NEP 2020 and technology concerns should be paid.	Relevant provisions of NEP 2020 have been added by keeping industrial need under consideration.
